Cut In County Taxes Assured By Officials

Commissioners Believe They Will Be Able To Slice Off Two Mills

TAPAYERS MEET WITH OFFICIALS

Some Estimates Increased And Others Are Decreased In Making Budget

Although the county tax millage has not yet been officially set for 1933, the county commissioners informed a committee of the Taxpayers League this morning that it is believed that a cut of two mills can be made. The present millage for county purposes is 6½. This would reduce it to 4½. The poor millage is 3½. In view of conditions, it is not believed wise to reduce the poor millage.

Decision of the county commissioners has been reached after a careful examination of the expenses for last year, and consideration of the recommendations of County Controller R. C. McCaslin for a reduction this year. It was found necessary to increase the controller's estimate in some instances, while in others it was reduced.

Taxpayers' League Represented
Members of the taxpayers league present were James K. Love, Edward J. Davis, Lee R. Gordon and G. L. Henderson of this city; Carl Davidson of Ellwood City and Eugene Sampson of Washington township. Hon. George T. Weingart-

PA NEW OBSERVES

A Siamese lamb was born on the farm of Ralph Baird, Lowellville, R. D. 2, Saturday afternoon, the body of the lamb was almost as large as two lambs and two heads were on the body, connected at the sides. The lamb had two mouths, four eyes, but only three ears, the one on the top of the double head being a double ear. The mother sheep and lamb both died.

Speaking of jig-saw puzzles, a police officer just about explained the situation the other day when he said that all he could see after working on one of the puzzles the other day was a certain red and purple type of flowers that happened to be the puzzle he was working.

If most people spent as much time and energy on other things as they do on jig-saw puzzles, it begins to look as if the depression problem would have been solved long ago.

Tributes to Lincoln were given in many of the church services of the city yesterday, Lincoln's birthday anniversary.

There are still some robins hanging about, in spite of the severe cold weather of the last week. Pa New heard one chirping near his home this morning.

There was a decided contrast between temperatures yesterday and those of a year ago. Pa New notes. On February 12, 1932, the temperature rose to 73 degrees, the highest mark of the winter. On February 12, 1931, the weather was much like yesterday's, the low mark being 15 degrees, accompanied by snow.

REVIVE RUMOR LINDBERGH'S PLAN TO RESIDE IN FRANCE

(International News Service)
LONDON, Feb. 13.—Col. Charles A. Lindbergh intends to make his future home in France, according to a Central News dispatch today.
The message quoted the "Lone Eagle's" sister-in-law, the former Elizabeth Morrow, as stating the colonel was undecided whether to live on the Riviera or in the Basque country.

The report added the sister-in-law, Mrs. Elsie Morgan, revealed Colonel Lindbergh's intention when she and her husband arrived in Nice.

NEW YORK, Feb. 13.—No confirmation could be obtained today from Col. Charles A. Lindbergh or Col. Henry J. Breckenridge, the fier's attorney and spokesman, of reports the Lindberghs would leave the United States to take up residence in the south of France.

From time to time rumors the famed couple contemplated such action as a result of the abduction and death of their first son and subsequent threats have cropped up but always they have been met with silence at the Hopewell, N. J., estate.

CONTROVERSIES TO BE AVOIDED

Unusual Preparation Has Been Given Speech, Will Urge Republican Cooperation

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, Feb. 13.—President Hoover will go to New York today, to deliver what will probably be his last public utterance as chief executive of the nation.

He has said that his speech, to be delivered before the Lincoln Day rally of the National Republican club at the Waldorf, will not touch closely the subject of controversial politics, but undoubtedly, Mr. Hoover will sound a definitely concluding note to an administration that for four years has been beset with economic ailments.

The president has given unusual labor preparation for tonight's address.

Asks Cooperation
Reports that Mr. Hoover would urge the outgoing Republican administration to formulate a policy of cooperation with the incoming Democratic regime in an effort to help the general cause of getting the nation out of economic doldrums, were definitely denied, by the president himself.

The speech of the president will be broadcast over a nation-wide radio hook-up to other Republican or-

Blast And Fire At Washington Fatal For Two

Bodies Of Two Men Found In Fire Ruins, Believed Victims Of Own Plot

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, Pa., Feb. 13.—The bodies of two men, one of whom may have been a victim of his own plot, were discovered today in the ruins of one of three buildings wrecked by an explosion and fire.

Neighbors of Joseph Colosi, owner of one of the buildings, identified the first body as that of a man known only as "Big John" from Niagara Falls. The second body was burned beyond recognition.

Authorities believed an incendiary plot was responsible for the bombing and fire. They said they found four five-gallon tin cans containing small amounts of gasoline in the rear of the Colosi residence.

Loss was estimated at $10,000.

HARRISBURG, Feb. 13.—Legalized, state-wide Sunday baseball in Pennsylvania during the coming summer appears out of the question.

Ballooning hopes of sports fans that the next few months would bring major league teams to Philadelphia and Pittsburgh and minor teams to other cities of the state for their Sabbath debut seem destined to be punctured in the senate.

The Schwartz blue law modifier will be passed, according to all surveys, but the amendments proposed for the insertion by the senate would render it ineffective until 1934.

The League suggested that wet nursing of it be turned over to America and Russia. Neither one belongs to the League. That's like a policeman turning a desperate criminal over to a couple of civilians and telling 'em, "Here, you watch this fellow, I am busy."

That today became the very definite prospect in the realm of Sunday sports legislation and, with the decision of Republican organization leaders to furnish conditional support for the dry law repealer, constituted the most significant week-end political developments. The dry repeal bill is on second reading in the house tonight and it may become senate property before the end of the week. An indefinite delay of the measure in the upper branch was forecast.

Possibility Exists Lincoln And George Washington Related

Abraham Lincoln Known To Have Conducted Private Investigation Into Relationship

Believe Publication Of Son Robert's Collection Of Letters May Clear Up Matter

(International News Service)
CHICAGO, Feb. 13.—The possibility that Abraham Lincoln may have been a relative of George Washington was cited today by Mrs. Eleanor Gridley, author of "Log Cabin To White House."

In explaining her belief Mrs. Gridley said that when Robert Lincoln's collection of his father's correspondence is published under terms of his will the letters in all probability will prove that Lincoln believed himself a scion of the Washington family.

Private Probe
The author added that she is convinced that Lincoln conducted a private investigation to prove this theory of his relationship to the first president.

Robert Lincoln's will stipulates that the correspondence may be made public in 25 years.

Convicted Former Director Of Supplies Is Allegheny Jail Prisoner

MAYOR KLINE APPEALS CASE

(International News Service)
PITTSBURGH, Feb. 13.—Bertram L. Succop, former director of supplies for the city of Pittsburgh, was a prisoner in the Allegheny county jail today, serving a one-year sentence imposed upon him on a conviction of malfeasance charges.

Succop, convicted at Butler last year with Mayor Charles H. Kline of irregularities in his office, surrendered last night. He was alone and silent.

"Well, here I am," he said to Warden John McNeil. "I'm going to do the best I can."

As Succop, a loser in his battle to have the sentence revoked, turned to the confinement of his cell, the state supreme court deliberated the case against Mayor Kline. The court has been asked to grant the Mayor a hearing on his appeal to set aside the superior court ruling, which upheld the prison term.

BARUCH PRESENTS PLAN TO RESTORE U. S. PROSPERITY

budget through drastic economies and increased taxes.

Third—A broad legislative program for the relief of debtors, to be achieved through drastic reduction of debts, with the government helping to refinance indebtedness.

Fourth—A bold double barreled plan of farm relief.

Fifth—An international conference for the stabilization of silver.

No Cancellation

Baruch opposed cancellation of war debts owed to the United States by foreign nations.

As a means of balancing the budget, he urged immediate enactment of a beer bill to yield $150,000,000 annually; together with repeal of the 18th amendment.

Four major causes brought on the depression, Baruch declared: Inflation due to the World War; debts and taxes; "national self containment"; and excessive productive capacity.

Although he laid great emphasis on the relief of suffering, Baruch did not enter into details of a legislative relief program.

Cut U. S. Expenses

As aids to a balanced budget he urged reduction of federal expenditures by a billion and a half dollars annually, bringing the total to three billions.

"That in itself would result in a return of confidence and therefore an increase in business and employment," he declared.

With the budget balanced and confidence restored, Baruch insisted, the government could obtain all most unlimited funds with which to relieve the needy and provide a public works program.

One of Baruch's two plans for farm relief contemplates the scaling down of principal on all farm indebtedness and the scaling down of interest to 3 1/2 per cent.

Revision of the Versailles treaty was urged as a requisite to "economic and military disarmament."

Throughout his testimony Baruch scored the attempts to retain the inflated evaluations built up during the boom years preceding October, 1929.

"The chief barrier to returning prosperity now is the debris of World War inflation," he asserted.

"We must courageously clear it away and stop our vain attempts to restore or preserve vanished values."

"This is the first step to recovery."

2. Japan will not recognize an autonomous Manchuria such as the League of Nations is attempting to create.

3. With deep regret, Japan will withdraw from the League of Nations if necessary.

4. If Japan's resignation becomes necessary, the League of Nations must accept responsibility for it, as the recommendations of the Sino-Japanese committee of nineteen "fail to conform with Japan's basic principles."

Show-down Near

Geneva, Feb. 13.—Bringing the impasse between Japan and the League of Nations closer than ever to a show-down, the committee of nineteen today accepted the first three parts of the report of the committee of nine.

This means the committee of nineteen went on record as favoring establishment of Chinese sovereignty in Manchuria and withdrawal of Japanese troops to points within the Manchurian railway zones.

It was believed the remainder of the sub-committee's recommendations would be adopted tomorrow by the committee of nineteen, which will then call on the League assembly to pass on the report.

Attorney Will Recover From Bullet Wounds

Attorney I. D. McCall, Of Dubois Is Reported Recovering In Hospital

NO SUSPECTS IN SHOOTING HELD

(International News Service)

CLEARFIELD, Pa., Feb. 13.—With no definite leads in sight, state and county police today pushed their probe of the mysterious shooting of I. D. McCall, prominent Dubois attorney, by a would-be assassin last Friday night.

Attaches at Maple Avenue hospital in Dubois reported McCall as very much improved today. He had emerged from a coma and was believed on the road to recovery.

No Suspects Held

No suspects are now held in connection with the shooting, according to District Attorney S. Cortez Bell who is in active charge of the investigation.

Bell said he is convinced, however, that robbery was not the motive for the shooting although telephone wires leading from McCall's home had been cut shortly before the attorney was shot as he left his automobile in his garage.

Bell pointed out that had robbery been the motive, the assailant had ample time to have effected an entrance into the house while McCall and his wife were absent in Dubois.

McCall is still in a serious condition, although improving, at the hospital to which he drove himself despite loss of blood occasioned from four bullet wounds.

Bowling Alley Is Scene Of Robbery

Robbers Get A Considerable Quantity Of Cigars And Tobacco

Police officer on the seventh ward beat was advised about 10 o'clock Sunday evening by one of the proprietors, that the McNutt & McCarthy bowling alley, North Liberty street and Wabash avenue, had been entered.

Investigation made by the police was to the effect that the place had been entered through a side window that had been left unlocked. Cigars, tobacco and cigarettes had been taken and also a slot machine. The slot machine had been removed to a nearby vacant house, where it had been broken open and the contents removed. The broken machine was found during the investigation.

Mayor Imposes Fine On Driver

Police received a call shortly after one o'clock Sunday afternoon to 420 East Long avenue, to investigate an accident.

On their arrival there, they found that the car of Sam Hemmett, R. D. No. 6 had his car parked in front of 420 East Long avenue, while he was in a nearby store.

While he was in that place, John P. Brogan of 816 Lathrop street, came east on Long avenue and his car crashed into the left hand side of the Hemmett car, damaging it considerably, and then went into the front yard of Yulins Kidour, 425 East Long avenue.

Brogan was arrested and brought to the police station. He was assessed a fine of $15 on a charge of speeding.

ner appeared as a representative of the state and county relief control. County Commissioners P. O. Elder, Elmer Conners and F. R. Woods with County Solicitor John P. Lockhart, made up the official board.

Each item of expense for last year was taken up and discussed at length. It was found that the interest on bonds to be paid this year will amount to $41,000. There must also be set aside $101,000 for retirement of bonds. This will reduce the county's bonded indebtedness to about $800,000. The peak of the county's bonded indebtedness several years ago was $1,829,000, so that substantial headway has been made in reducing the county's indebtedness.

Bridges Costly

The principal increase in the county controller's estimate was made on the item of bridges. It is practically certain that the West Washington street bridge will have to be overhauled this year at an expense estimated at from $12,000 to $15,000. About $1,800 expense will be needed on the Cherry street bridge. Other estimates were Break-neck bridge over the Slippery Rock $1,800. Repairs on Wilmington township bridge over the Neshaun bridge, $3,925, emergency work on bridges, $6,000.

Expenses of making the triennial assessment this year, were estimated to cost $10,000, although this is lower than last year by over $3,000. It cost about $16,000 to make the last triennial assessment, but it is believed that if the assessors co-operate and try to do the work as rapidly as possible, that a saving can be made this year.

May Save Some

The cost of expenses at penal institutions, such as the workhouse and penitentiary amounted to over $44,000 last year. This is an item which is hard to cut, as there is no way of telling how many prisoners the county will have to keep.

It developed that the cost of keeping prisoners at the workhouse is 85 cents per day. The cost in the county jail is about 50 cents per day. With the co-operation of the court, it is believed that many prisoners can be kept in the county jail that might otherwise be sent to the workhouse, thus saving 35 cents a day on each.

Pay for the registration and enrollment of voters is fixed by the legislature, but a cut of $2500 was made on the item for personal registration. Co-operation of registrars in speeding up the work will be asked.

In the matter of damages for county roads an increase to $10,000 from the $1000 allowed was made as there are a number of claims outstanding and no way of telling what will have to be paid.

In the matter of appropriation the farm board was reduced from $2400 to $1800. Mr. Sampson of the farm board made a plea for $2000, and the matter has not been definitely decided.

Other appropriations, which are all reductions are Lawrence county fair $500, Troop F $625, Ellwood City armory, $250. Flags will be supplied for Memorial day as usual, but those in charge will be asked to omit flowers.

Considerable saving will be effected on the matter of jurors. The panels have been cut down and one term of court eliminated.

Salaries of officials and help in the court house were taken up for discussion just before noon. The discussion was resumed at this afternoon's session.

Intensive Hunt Starts

An army of detectives and uniformed police gathered at the Boettcher home and, under the direction of Chief of Police Albert T. Clark, took up what meager clues were available.

One squad of detectives armed with sawed-off shotguns left the Boettcher home with James Q. Newton, the victim's business partner. His destination was not revealed.

Boettcher is a member of one of Colorado's wealthiest families. His grandfather, Charles Boettcher, founded the sugar and cement industries in this state. His father, Claude Boettcher, is heavily interested in a variety of business enterprises.

Mrs. Boettcher, in addition to taking a prominent part in Denver social affairs, was a leader in the prohibition repeal movement in Colorado. They have a daughter, Anna Lou, 5.

Boettcher was guarding every highway out of the city, and shotguns were officers patrolled the streets in radio equipped cars with orders to halt and question every suspicious person.

REVIVING THE REPUBLICAN PARTY

AFTER the Hoover election in 1928, when the Republican party swept the country, the prevailing thought was that the Democratic party was in such a bad way that it could not recover in many a year. Nevertheless in 1932 it not only recovered, but it elected a president of its own choice and gave him a Democratic majority of three-fourths in the house and two-thirds in the senate. The boot is now on the other leg. It is the Republican party that, beginning at the foot of the hill, must climb upward if it is to succeed in 1936.

How can it succeed? By taking advantage of whatever grave mistakes may be made by the incoming Democratic congress. This implies that the Republican minority must keep a level head and be able to point out the nature of the mistakes; to prove to the public, if it can, that Republican leadership is more trustworthy. Benefit should be derived also from the education of the youth of the country in Republican principles and policies.

The past week has produced a distinct movement for the formation of a national Republican League which has this very object in view. Vice President Curtis is to be its nominal head. John A. Campbell of New York is to be the manager. Some old-timers—lame ducks—are included in the project. But here is the necessity for the infusion of young blood in the leadership.

But something more than youthful training is needful. Reorganization of the national Republican structure is a factor that cannot be neglected. A watchful eye kept on Washington and what transpires there is imperative. Sensible and intelligent comment on Democratic policies is essential.

Mr. Roosevelt is about to occupy the white house. A congress with large Democratic majorities will shortly legislate for the welfare—or the reverse—of the country. Nothing is to be gained for the Republican side by mere criticism. The test will come with Democratic accomplishments or the lack of them. The United States is suffering from a depression that is world wide. The new president will be entitled to all respect. He should be given every possible opportunity to make good. He should be supported by even the most partisan Republican in every practical effort to restore normal conditions. He has told the country that there is to be a "new deal," that he believes in making experiments. Very well. All depends upon what these experiments comprise and how they work out.

There are blocs in congress devoted to wild inflation; to an extensive coinage of silver; to huge funds for public enterprises; to the promotion of government control of enterprises that belong properly to private operation the Philadelphia Inquirer points out. President Roosevelt will have lots of trouble on his hands, beginning with the foreign debt question and imposing deficits to be disposed of. All these matters will be much in the public eye and ear. Wise Republican leadership will co-operate for legislation that promises to be helpful. It will steadily oppose schemes that would be harmful. The future of the Democratic party is in its own hands. It can strengthen or break itself according to the nature of its activities.

CAUTIOUS IDEALISM

Mr. Dooley's classic disquisition on the tariff system quoted "the senator from Virginia" to the effect that he was unalterably opposed to the "iniquity" of the protective tariff, but if the iniquity must be, he wanted Virginia to get its share.

Unbalanced governmental budgets and public extravagance are iniquities to which all persons are bitterly opposed, but if the latter iniquity must be, those persons want to get their share. Interests, blocs, rousers and individuals agree that the federal government does not have billions it is asked to give to the banks, farmers, veterans and jobs and that the government must sharply curtail its expenses, but each one is only too willing to take the lion's share if there is to be any sharing.

On all sides there is this reaching for the heights of devotion to principle with one hand while the other keeps a working contact with the pork barrel.

Every officeholder confesses that the ship of state has too many lands, yet no one has ever heard of a voluntary resignation. Taxpayers ill argue that the federal government is spending twice as much as it should, but most taxpayers belong to some group or another even now fighting for more room at the public trough.

NO BUSINESS TO MIND

Washington will witness a stupendous exodus on March 4 and hereafter for some weeks or months. Some will depart with regrets, others with thanksgiving. Some the people will surrender reluctantly, others gladly.

In anticipation of this general evacuation the favorite interrogation in the national capital today is, "What will you do after March 4?" Many and varied have been the answers but one classic reply merits public notice and editorial commend. Secretary of the Navy Adams made and here it is:

"I am going back to Boston and mind my own business."

There are in Washington many whom the country would much rather see go home and mind their own business.

The nation would gladly release from their martyred existence in Washington the professional lobbyists who seek to justify their salaries by raiding the public treasury, and those blocs, interests and groups which are only too willing for the government to begin economizing after they get their fill of "gravy."

Secretary Adams will have some of his "own business" to mind when he returns to Boston. What a pity the professional politicians who make of public service a racket do not have some business they could find back home!

Europe is willing to let bygones be bygones.

There's always a bright side. Only in times like these are safety and vaults given practical tests.

A MAN AND A WOMAN IN A BOOK

"Oh, darling," says the girl in Hemingway's "Farewell to Arms." "I'm awfully glad you've not conceived. I'd have married you even if you were conceived, but it's very restful to have a husband who's not conceived."

He HAD been conceived, you know. Well, not exactly conceived, but he'd gone his own way and done as he pleased and had never had the slightest intention of falling in love with anybody, or marrying her, either. But now he's fallen in love, and he wasn't like that any more. He was at rest now, and seeking anything he did not have. Not worried, not driven. The two of them were enough for each other and they were happy together. Afterward he said:

"Often a man wishes to be alone and a girl wishes to be alone, too, and if they love each other they are jealous of that in each other, but I can truly say we never felt like that. We could feel alone when we were together, alone against the others. It had only happened to me like this once. I have been alone while I was with many girls, and that is the way you can be most lonely. But we were never lonely and never afraid when we were together."

So they were truly married, those two. Even if he had been conceived she would have loved him just as she did. But she liked him best without conceit. Any wife would, I think. Sometimes a man is arrogant toward everybody, including her. And that must hurt. She wants him to be strong and unafraid toward the world and toward the things that happen in it—toward the thing we sometimes call Life (with a capital "L")—but let that be the end of it.

If she's happiest only when he's there and knows that's the happiest time for him, too, that's really marriage and a deep and wonderful blessing.

A woman will forgive many faults if a man is like that. She doesn't want him weak or soft. She wants him independent (those maternal marriages are never as satisfactory as they sometimes seem: they are really pathetic compromise, and any normal woman knows they are). But she wants the two of them to be living TOGETHER and never lonely as long as the other is there. That's the good marriage. And it's the only one that lasts.

And I'm thinking too, there are quite a few people in this world who would envy the man and the woman in Hemingway's book.

AN EMBARRASSING POSITION

Because of financial reasons some friends of yours may have found it necessary to resign from a club to which you both have belonged.

It is not a kindness on your part to invite him to accompany you as a guest, to meetings of the organization or to take part in its festivities. You have the right spirit in wanting to invite him and most of the members would doubtless feel as you do about having him attend.

But it is more likely that some would remark about him, avoiding financial responsibilities, while enjoying the good times.

Don't put your friend in such an embarrassing position.

No matter how great his friendship for you, he will not feel right to accept your hospitality, in existing circumstances.

None likes to admit that he has mingled for a time in an atmosphere he cannot afford to continue.

He may say to himself that he has been going beyond his depth in social affairs but he would not like to have the fact presented thus if he goes as your guest.

Most men have too much pride to accept favors they cannot return, and you should respect this fine feeling.

WHEN THE YOUNGSTERS ARE OUT

"Don't worry," cry the youngsters, but little do they know.

The heart of a man was fashioned to fret and worry so.

And when after they wander, should wind blow up or rain,

The mother heart must worry till they come home again.

Brave youth can scarce believe it that off where pleasures lie

Are countless hurts and dangers which cause the old to sigh.

And though the road be rugged, all terrors they disdain,

But mother won't sleep soundly till they come home again.

"Don't worry," shout the youngsters, and off to dance they go

And wonder what life threatens that old folks worry so.

But love is ever fearful of accident and pain

And mother hearts are ill at ease till they come home again.

And whosoever was not found written in the book of life was cast into the lake of fire.—Revelation 20:15.

NO BOGUS DOLLARS NEEDED There seems to be in a not inconsiderable section of the public mind, a great deal of confusion of credit expansion with currency debasement. Naive quacks and unscrupulous politicians eager to play upon public ignorance have united to inspire much wild Congressional mouthing in advocacy of some of the most fantastically impossible legislation, with just enough of the truth proclaimed to make some of the schemes have an appeal to those who regularly think superficially on most subjects.

No objection can be found, of course, to the restoration of commodity prices and the normal flow of money into the channels of business. Indeed, for some time, the government has followed a policy designed to bring about these results. But any measure designed to destroy the dollar, suspend the gold standard or issue fiat money is political shysterism of the most poisonous sort.

Cheapening of the dollar or the circulation of printing-press currency would inevitably impair the value of money and thereby rob the American people. But there are many ways in which inflation can be arrested, a "reflation" accomplished, and economic pressure applied with a view to turning commodity prices upward.

The Federal Reserve banks hold $1,857,000,000 in government bonds, which means that those banks have placed that amount of money at the disposal of their members; and this credit can be used for the issuance of a certain amount of currency, if indeed there is really need for expansion of the circulating medium.

Another benignly "inflationary" factor is the increase of gold stocks by about 12 per cent since last July. And every dollar in gold may serve as the base for $11 in credit. There is no need whatever for bogus dollars.—Ft. Wayne News-Sentinel.

Funds For Air-Mail Subsidy Held Profitable To Country

Action Of Senate In Eliminating $19,000,000 Leaves Subject For Further Discussion In New National Administration

While the senate eliminated from the treasury-postoffice appropriation bill an item of $19,000,000 for air transport of domestic mails, there are suggestions that the provision may be restored. The importance of this fund to the development of aviation in the United States is asserted, and it is pointed out that there will be further opportunity for the item to be considered as a feature of national policy.

"If the senate attack on subsidies does nothing else," thinks the BALTIMORE SUN, "it will at least help to check the mood of reckless spending, and will put the aviation industry on notice that subventions will be more carefully scrutinized in the future than they have in the past." The Sun also comments on the situation: "It may be doubted whether subsidy payments can be withdrawn completely without violating contractual rights which the courts will require federal agencies to observe. But something might be done by way of revising the payments, and in view of the state of the federal finances the possibilities in this direction are decidedly worth exploring. The postoffice deficit which has attained unprecedented proportions these last two years might be substantially reduced by a curtailment of the sums that department is now paying out with a lavish hand on the subsidy contracts. The postoffice department itself might have done something in the direction of economy with the subsidy contracts. It is allowed a considerable discretion. But its policy has been one of expansion and extravagance."

"It is questionable," in the opinion of the NEW YORK SUN, "whether the senate leaders actually intend to put an end to what Senator Robinson of Arkansas described as a luxury. It is more likely that, the house willing, they intend to defer until after the expiration of the present session the whole subject of air mail subsidies. The best indication of this course of action is the fact that what the senate voted for was, in effect, the outright violation of contracts. There is a disposition, in both senate and house, to examine the particulars of subsidies of air mail and ship mail with greater care than was the custom a few years ago. That disposition ought to be encouraged, but the senate took an unprofitable course in voting as it did, unless the postponement of issues to the next administration is held by leaders of that body to be the great desideratum."

"The striking of the 19 millions from the bill, thus leaving the air mail unsupplied for as viewed by the SALT LAKE DESERET NEWS, "is the Democratic answer to Postmaster General Brown's proposed new contracts. There will still be time after March 4 for Mr. James A. Farley's award of air-mail contracts. Mr. Farley is very likely to occupy Mr. Brown's place after the inauguration."

The senate action, in the opinion of the SALT LAKE DESERET NEWS, "aims a heavy blow at the American aeronautical industry," described by that paper as "a vital factor in business activity and essential to national defense." The Express also comments as to other details: "In 1932, pilots carried eight million pounds of mail over routes which are indispensable to the nation's business and social concerns. Those aviators generally would be available for instant military duty in event of war, and their commercial service has been commended at home and abroad. * * * No authority on aviation will dispute the postmaster general's assertion that the discontinuance or crippling of air mail service at this time 'practically would destroy the aeronautical industry, with a gross annual turnover of 50 million dollars.' The enterprises which carry air mail disburse about 25 million dollars a year. They form the nucleus of many other interests which would suffer with them. It is estimated that federal, state and municipal governments, corporations and individuals have invested at least 300 million dollars in improved airways, airports and other landing fields, factories, laboratories and related facilities."

"It is apparent," advises the WALL STREET JOURNAL, "that from the viewpoint of promotion of air transportation the government is obtaining far more for its dollar than it did two years or four years ago, and that the air transport industry is making headway in reducing its reliance upon what is essentially a government subsidy. Competent observers within the industry hold that air mail routes have been extended over many hundreds of miles where it is not justified by demand or usefulness. If so, some reduction in the appropriation can be made without serious injury to the service as a whole or to the new industry engaged in rendering it. But it should not be forgotten that there is an intimate relation between commercial aviation, as yet so largely dependent upon postal subventions, and the national defense. The military expediency of maintaining a vigorously developing airplane manufacture plus a large and highly trained pilot personnel cannot lightly be overlooked. For that reason alone actual governmental economy is likely to be better served in the long run by reasonably sustaining the air mail services than through too drastic retrenchment there which could more prudently be made in other places."

Educators Prepare For Convention Here Friday And Saturday

The educational convention which will be held in New Castle on February 17 and 18 is a branch of the Pennsylvania State Education Association.

For the convenience of the teachers the state is divided into eight convention districts. The midwestern district is composed of Beaver, Butler, Lawrence, Mercer, Armstrong, Clarion, and Jefferson Counties.

All members of the Pennsylvania State Education Association pay early dues of $1.00. The proceeds from the dues are used to publish an educational magazine known as the Pennsylvania School Journal and to defray the expenses of the annual meeting of the P. S. E. A. and to assist in the expenses of the district conventions. The Pennsylvania School Journal is a professional magazine for teachers and school officers and is used by the department of Public Instruction for the promulgation of official information.

The expenses of the speakers for the general sessions of the New Castle Convention will be paid by the State Association. No fees or honoraria are received by the speakers at the department conferences. The meeting place for the convention is provided by the city in which it is held.

Most of the school districts use these meetings as a substitute for the teachers' institute. The programs are entirely professional in character and are designed solely to improve the work of the teacher. All sessions are open to the public, and persons interested in education are cordially invited to attend.

Among the prominent speakers who will appear on the programs of the general sessions are the President of the National Education Association, the President of the Pennsylvania State Education Association, and the State Superintendent of Public Instruction.

Dr. H. L. Shoup, New York, reports: "In addition to intestinal cleansing, Adierika, reduces colon bacteria and bacilli."

SEVENTH WARD NEWS

Nearly Fifty At Saturday's Party

Youngsters Of 7th Ward Methodist Church Have Gathering; Other News

Every aspect of the Primary and Beginners party Saturday afternoon was a success. In the first place there was almost a perfect attendance, 43 youngsters there. The program of games went off in fine shape and every one of the boys and girls took part and enjoyed it. The youngsters gathered in one room of the Mahoning Methodist church and played games under the supervision of Mrs. John Conn and her committee of teachers.

Mrs. W. H. Mauermaier and her committee was in charge of the Primary amusements.

Later, the entire assemblage retired to the basement where a lunch in keeping with the Valentine season was served.

Observations In 7th Ward

That hazardous spot on the road to Wampum just on the other side of the tracks on Montgomery avenue has been equipped with fence planking. The turn in the road had been without fencing since last summer when an automobile went through it toward Mahoning river, and local motorists had complained about it.

Remember what was known as "windmill hill" to sled riders who indulged in the sport at Walnut Glen. It was a popular grade for the sleds, and many a one got hurt on it, too. When the winter sports were at Walnut Glen they were at Ealey's pond out at Sunny-side or under the old Black bridge out on the Mahoning just about where the railroad bridge now stands.

John Masters was, according to one of the local residents who should know, Mahoningtown's first Italian resident. Mr. Masters still lives here.

Only one or two other men in New Castle have served their communities as alderman longer than has Squire Coates. It was nearly a quarter of a century ago that he started his first term as alderman, and he has continued in the office most of the time since.

This request of the public library for information on buildings erected before 1860 has been food for thought among a number of the older seventh ward residents. They have decided that most of the real old buildings, such as Roney's Mill, and the old Black bridge have been torn down in recent years. However, it is probable that a few 1860 buildings are standing around here somewhere.

MAIL 'EM TODAY

A cosmic ray of excitement permeates through the downtown crowds today. The ray is being sent by St. Valentine, who, as everybody knows, is in cahoots with Eros, Amor, Cupid and Venus.

Judging by the blushing numbers who are licking stamps at the postoffice, the irresistible urge to send hearts, cupid and verses to those certain somebodies has smitten many a victim.

Valentine verses are much the same this year as they were in the gay nineties, except for a few modern twists. "Be my Valentine or I'll put you on the spot," and "You are a knockout with me and have made a dent in my Valentine" are some of the lines with a Chicago tone. But the old favorites, "Somebody Cares," and "To My Sweetheart" and "Won't you please be my Valentine?" are there and seem to have lost none of their fair appeal.

Once a year February 14 arrives—and is ever popular. It isn't spring that turns a young man's fancy—it's old friend Val with his lace and arrow pierced hearts and naive "pomes."

Prospective Auto Drivers Will Be Tested Tuesday

Weekly Examinations Take Place On Sampson Street By Officers

State Highway patrolmen will be stationed in Sampson street, this city, Tuesday for the purpose of conducting examinations of persons who wish to operate motor vehicles during 1933. The examinations will start at 10 a. m. and end at three p. m.

During the busy season, which generally is during the late spring and summer months a force of as high as four patrolmen is sent here. During the past few months, however, the detail has consisted of three and sometimes as few as two men.

When the applicants arrive at the office, they are requested to produce their learner's permit and the registration card for the automobile or truck, which is to be employed in the test.

They are questioned as to whether or not they have any physical defects after which they read signs. By reading the sign the patrolman finds out how good the applicant can see. They are then tested for color blindness.

The automobile used in the test is examined for defects after which the applicant is given the operating test. He or she is accompanied by a patrolman. The machine is turned around during the operation. After this the applicant must answer the questions concerning the state automobile laws.

If they pass the learner's permit is marked accordingly and they receive a card from Harrisburg. If they do not pass the test must be taken again.

Some News, Some Views, But Mostly Just Observations Of Interesting Things Around New Castle.

You may not have known it but Pennsylvania is one of the few states in the Union without a state flower. We have a state tree, the hemlock, a state nickname, the Keystone, a state motto, Virtue, Liberty and Independence, but no state flower. All of which should be remedied in the opinion of the women of the garden clubs of the state, including the Lawrence County Garden Club.

The local women have suggested the Wild Honeysuckle, sometimes known as the Mountain Azalea as Pennsylvania's flower and insofar as this column goes, that selection is just right. The dogwood, the violet, the rhododendron and a lot of others were suggested but had been taken by some other state.

The wild honeysuckle is a beautiful flower, has been preeminent by another state, is native to all parts of Pennsylvania and seems to fill the bill. There was a time when it was known as "Pinkster" by the early Dutch settlers, from the fact that it bloomed at the time of Pentecost, which they called "Pinkster."

One of the staff of the News believes in keeping out drafts, not alone for himself but for his car. On Sunday his humanitarianism attracted considerable attention when he drove down town with a blanket over the radiator.

"Buy American" is not an idea that was started in America. It was forced on this nation by the tactics of other nations. The British Empire is sprinkled with signs conjuring all subjects to "Buy British," and here is an example of how far the movement goes.

A week or so ago the members of the British Parliament passed a resolution recommending that some new sauce be found for their oysters served in the Parliament dining room. For years they have used tabasco sauce and tabasco sauce is manufactured in but one spot in the entire world, and that spot is New Iberia, Louisiana.

Digging back into your memory for sights of other days. Do you remember the first motorcycle policeman the city employed? It was Henry Dysart if you don't remember, but if you do, can't you still picture that palm beach suit and ulster he wore?

Those were the days that motorcycle cops stood out and a stop was good for a crowd of young boys. Henry had just come out of the tin mill a short time before, but customers he certainly was dressed for the part he took.

It may be smart for gals to wear long trousers, vests and coats, now that they smoke and stay out nights, and golf and swim and vote, but I opine they'll never be the same attractive menace, as they are when they dress themselves as though to play tennis.

One of the secret service operatives has dug up the facts on some of the Seventh Ward citizens.... don't shoot fellows.... Alderman H. G. Coates had a checked career before he gave himself to the legal world.... he was a baggage man, a tin worker, a box factory employee, and a coal dealer.... Captain F. P. Gorley of the fire department is a veteran spark but there was a day when he was a stove foundry employee.... James Gorman, who pilots a Seventh Ward car was a school teacher years ago.... and Frank Barnes wasn't always a B & O man.... he ran a dray wagon once.... W. S. McCaskey the undertaker was once a copper.... graduated from barrels to caskets.

Dr. Wagenhorst To Observe Work In Lebanon Schools

He will observe these teachers in a 45-minute period, analyze their methods, hold a short conference with each teacher, and after all the teachers have been observed, he will meet them in a group conference to discuss their problems.

Showdown For Crowther Bill

House Squares Away For Battle Today On Bill Regarding Imports

(International News Service) WASHINGTON, Feb. 13.—The house today squared away for a battle over the Crowther bill designed to curb imports from nations which have cheapened the most of production of their manufacturers through depreciation of their currency.

Party lines were closely drawn as the showdown approached, with Republicans favoring the measure and Democrats opposing it.

The question was to come before the house on a motion to discharge the Ways and Means Committee from consideration of the bill of Rep. Crowther (R) of New York. Adoption of the motion would throw the bill open to amendment.

The PROVED Method of Treating Colds EXTERNALLY!

THE minute you apply Vicks VapoRub over throat and chest it goes right to work to fight a cold—two ways at once—by Stimulation and Inhalation. Through the skin, it acts like a poultice, "drawing out" tightness and soreness. At the same time, its medicated vapors are inhaled direct to irritated air-passages. All night long, it works to help Nature "throw off" the cold.

Stainless VICKS—Vicks VapoRub is now obtainable in Stainless form. Same formula—same effective double-action—same price. Your druggist has the original amber form, too, if you prefer it.

Ideal for Children's Colds Mothers in 70 countries agree that Vicks VapoRub is best for children's colds. Being externally applied, it avoids the risks of those digestive upsets that so often come from constant dosing. It can be used freely, and as often as needed, even on the youngest child. And it's just as good, of course, for adults' colds.

To Cut Your Family's "Colds-Tax" The new Vicks Plan for better Control of Colds can save you money, time and health. In extensive clinical tests, it has cut the number, duration and costs of colds in half. The Plan is fully explained in each package of Vicks VapoRub and Vicks Nose & Throat Drops... the new aid in preventing colds.

Distribution Of Wheat And Cotton Shown By Red Cross

National Red Cross Summarizes
Figures For Preceding
Year

Figures, as of January 6, 1933, have been compiled by the National Red Cross, showing the figures for the distribution of government wheat and cotton, since this work was allotted to them by Congress last spring.

The number of barrels of flour committed is 7,673,085, in addition to which 223,903 tons of stock feed have been distributed. The number of families aided has been 4,759,400, all but 94 of the 3,650 Red Cross Chapters of the United States participating in the work of distribution. There have been 804 millers who have received orders for grinding the wheat into flour and feed. The total commitments of wheat in bushels amounts to 65,644,948.

The number of yard goods purchased was 55,392,881, in addition to which 2,018,135 dozen of ready-made garments were purchased. The estimated value of this merchandise has been $10,524,667. There were 215 manufacturing plants who received orders. The number of cotton committed by purchase has been 500,000. Families for whom cloth and clothing were purchased, were 4,485,730. There were 3,672 Red Cross Chapters and units, which applied for cloth to be made into garments. The cost to the National Red Cross for both cotton and wheat distribution has been $50,000 per month. The estimated total cost to complete the distribution of wheat to June 1, 1933 and cotton to April 1, 1933, is placed at $535,000.

This additional cost has been placed on the Red Cross, and has proven a heavy strain on their finances.

Plan Programs At New Bedford

New Bedford Grange Announces Series Of Programs For Coming Months

With an entertainment arranged for Friday evening, February 17, in the Town Hall, New Bedford Grange has mapped out an interesting series of programs during the coming months.

The entertainment arranged for Friday evening will consist of a one-act play, "Dead Expense," and a one-act musical comedy, "The Purple Cow."

The play is the one which was given by the Grange in the Lawrence County amateur dramatic contest at Shenango high school in November. The musical comedy is an original production, of which

William Dingley, a graduate of Rayen high school, is author.

Tuesday evening, February 21, the Lecturer's hour will consist of an open meeting, when the program will be furnished by the Lake Erie Limestone Company.

On March 7, the men's contest will feature the program and on March 21, the women's contest will mark the 10th anniversary of the organization of the grange, and on April 18, Mahoning Valley Grange will visit New Bedford Grange, in one of the series of traveling gavel meetings being held in the county.

Make Progress In Church Visitation

Progress is being made in the visitation that is being made at the present time by a group of some 30 men of Trinity Episcopal church on every member of the parish. The visitation is for the purpose of stirring up interest in the coming Lenten season and the work of the church in particular and is planned as an event that will be held several times during the course of each year as a means of bringing forth bigger and better results in the work of the church. It is in no way connected with the annual canvass of the parish for church funds, the visitation being purely for the improvement of the religious and social life of the church. The visitation is to be completed by February 26.

STOMACH UPSET

Get at the real cause. That's what thousands of stomach sufferers are doing now. Instead of taking tonics, or trying to patch up a poor digestion, they are attacking the real cause of the ailment—clogged liver and disordered bowels.

Dr. Edwards Olive Tablets help arouse the liver in a soothing, healing way. When the liver and bowels are performing their natural functions, people rarely suffer from indigestion and stomach troubles.

Have you a bad taste, coated tongue, poor appetite, a lazy, don't-care feeling, no ambition or energy, trouble with undigested foods? Try Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound. Know them by their olive color. They do the work without gripping, cramps or pain. All druggists, 15c, 30c and 60c. Take one or two at bedtime for quick relief. Eat what you like.

ALLEGED KIDNAP PLOTTER CAUGHT AT SHARON

Kidnap Plotter At Sharon Will Plead His Guilt

Harold Brest, 21, Will Go Before Judge McLaughry And Plead Guilty To Plot

BOUGHT $5,000 FOR CANAL TRIP

Mrs. Julia Buhl, Aunt Of Late Attorney William Whitla Threatened By Note

(International News Service) SHARON, Pa., Feb. 13.—Held on charges of attempting to extort $5,000 on a threat to kidnap the daughters of the late Attorney William F. Whitla, victim of a sensational abduction in 1909, Harold Brest, 21, a paroled auto thief, was quoted by police as intending to plead guilty today before Judge J. A. McLaughry at Mercer.

Brest was picked up Saturday night when he retrieved a decoy package near Meyersdale, hidden in a stump in accordance with instructions in a note demanding $5,000.

Mrs. Julia Buhl, an aunt of Whitla.

Needed Money. Police quoted the youth as confessing the plot and giving as his motive: "I wanted some money for a trip to the Panama canal and this looked easy."

The note to Mrs. Buhl said her "grandchildren" would be kidnapped if the money was not paid. Mrs. Buhl has no grandchildren but authorities declared the intended victims of the plot were Mrs. Buhl's two granddaughters, daughters of Whitla, who died last December.

A dynamite charge was said in the note to have been planted at the Buhl home, to be exploded if the plot was revealed to police. An investigation proved this to be false.

Whitla, when a schoolboy of eight years, was taken from his classes in 1909 and hurried to Cleveland in a horse-drawn buggy by a man and a woman, who held him for $10,000 ransom. James Boyle, convicted of a plot, died in Western penitentiary. Helen Boyle, his wife, was sentenced to a 25-year term but was later paroled and is reported living in Chicago.

(International News Service) WASHINGTON, Pa., Feb. 13.—Trial of Policeman John Cochran on a manslaughter charge in the death of Charles E. Bittner, chain store manager, was scheduled to get underway in Criminal court here today with the selection of a jury.

Bittner was arrested by Cochran when he allegedly refused to obey orders and move when the officer broke up a gathering on a street corner. Enroute to the station, Bittner broke loose and Cochran whipped out a gun and killed him. Cochran said he thought Bittner intended to draw a pistol at him.

The officer has been under suspension since the shooting.

Date Is Set For Playing Of State Championship Game

Pennsylvania Interscholastic Association Sets Date Of April 1

(International News Service) HARRISBURG, Feb. 13.—April 1 was listed today as the date when Pennsylvania's interscholastic basketball championship will be decided.

Meeting in Harrisburg, the board of control of the Pennsylvania Interscholastic Athletic Association agreed upon the date but selected no site for the championship contest, deciding only that it shall be played in eastern Pennsylvania.

The board also agreed that because of a "lack of interest" there will be no state-wide track meet this year.

Tourney Date Set. Teams in the twelve districts will play intra-district basketball games next month to decide entrants for the inter-district series, which will begin March 21, and the regional contests to be held March 24 and 25. Inter-district pairing coupled Nos. 1 and 11, 2 and 12, 3 and 4, 5 and 6, 7 and 8 and 9 and 10.

Arrangements were made for the elimination series so that a team representing the eastern region will play a western Pennsylvania team in the final contest.

Pinchot Charges Soft Coal Rates Hurting Industry

Inform Interstate Commerce Commission Of Big Losses To Mine Operators

ASK REVIEW OF EXISTING RATES

(International News Service) HARRISBURG, Feb. 13.—The Interstate Commerce commission was accused by Gov. Gifford Pinchot today of discriminating against Pennsylvania by fixing bituminous freight rates which cost the state an annual loss in sales of $60,000,000 tons of soft coal and permanent unemployment of 42,000 miners.

The governor charges that "nothing in the annals of economic history can equal what the Interstate Commerce commission has perpetrated by the freight rate structure foisted upon Pennsylvania bituminous coal."

His statement came jointly with a bulletin on "freight rates and bituminous coal," prepared by the Greater Pennsylvania council, which asserted that "rate preferentials to other fields have squeezed Pennsylvania from the larger market areas."

Ask For Review. The council, according to Governor Pinchot, is appealing for a systematic review of the rates by the Pennsylvania Public Service commission and the federal body and asks for rates "more definitely related to mileage with fair and equal competition for all areas producing soft coal."

The governor argued that coal may be carried from Kentucky and West Virginia mines for longer distances and at lower rates than those fixed for the hauling of Pennsylvania soft coal.

First Christian Program Marks Climax To Anniversary Celebration

Dr. G. S. Bennett praised Scouting in glowing terms last night as he delivered the official Boy Scout Week sermon for scouts of the New Castle district in the First Christian church. The anniversary message was heard by a public audience that comfortably filled the church.

"Contributions of Scouting" was the fitting topic for the inspiring spiritual discourse which Dr. Bennett, himself a leader in the councils of the Boy Scouts, gave. The sermon followed Council President L. E. Rott's brief plea for adult leadership locally in "these stressing times."

One juvenile court judge reports, "Dr. Bennett told his audience during the sermon, that of the 1,300 cases before him within the past year, but two involved the name of Scouting. Just two boys of the 1,300 had been scouts before, and their experience as scouts was short."

Dr. Bennett asked what better proof of Scouting's contributions could be desired and interestingly he developed the part Scouting plays in the home, school, church and community at large.

Scoutmaster Sidney Smith of the First Christian church read the scripture for the evening; the church quartet sang, and Scout Commissioner R. F. Davis led the audience in the scout oath. Scout Executive H. G. Horton gave the scout benediction at the close.

Sitting in a reserved section of the church during the evening were uniformed Boy Scouts from New Castle district troops which for the past week have been celebrating the 23rd anniversary of the founding of the movement.

Herculean Task Of Approving Patronage Appointments Will Be Taken Up

(International News Service) MIAMI, Fla., Feb. 13.—Twenty-four hours of isolation and complete relaxation lay before President-Elect Roosevelt today.

Otherwise, he will go direct to Hyde Park and start the herculean last-minute task of passing on major patronage appointments.

Society Timber-Topper

There is nothing quite so thrilling to the equestrienne as the feel of a gallant horse as he gathers his muscles in the supreme effort to clear an obstacle. Here is an excellent action picture showing Miss Emily Davie, a society horsewoman, of Westbury, L. I., as she took her mount over a steep barrier during the recent drag hunt at Hitchcock Woods, Aiken, S. C.

Link With Lincoln

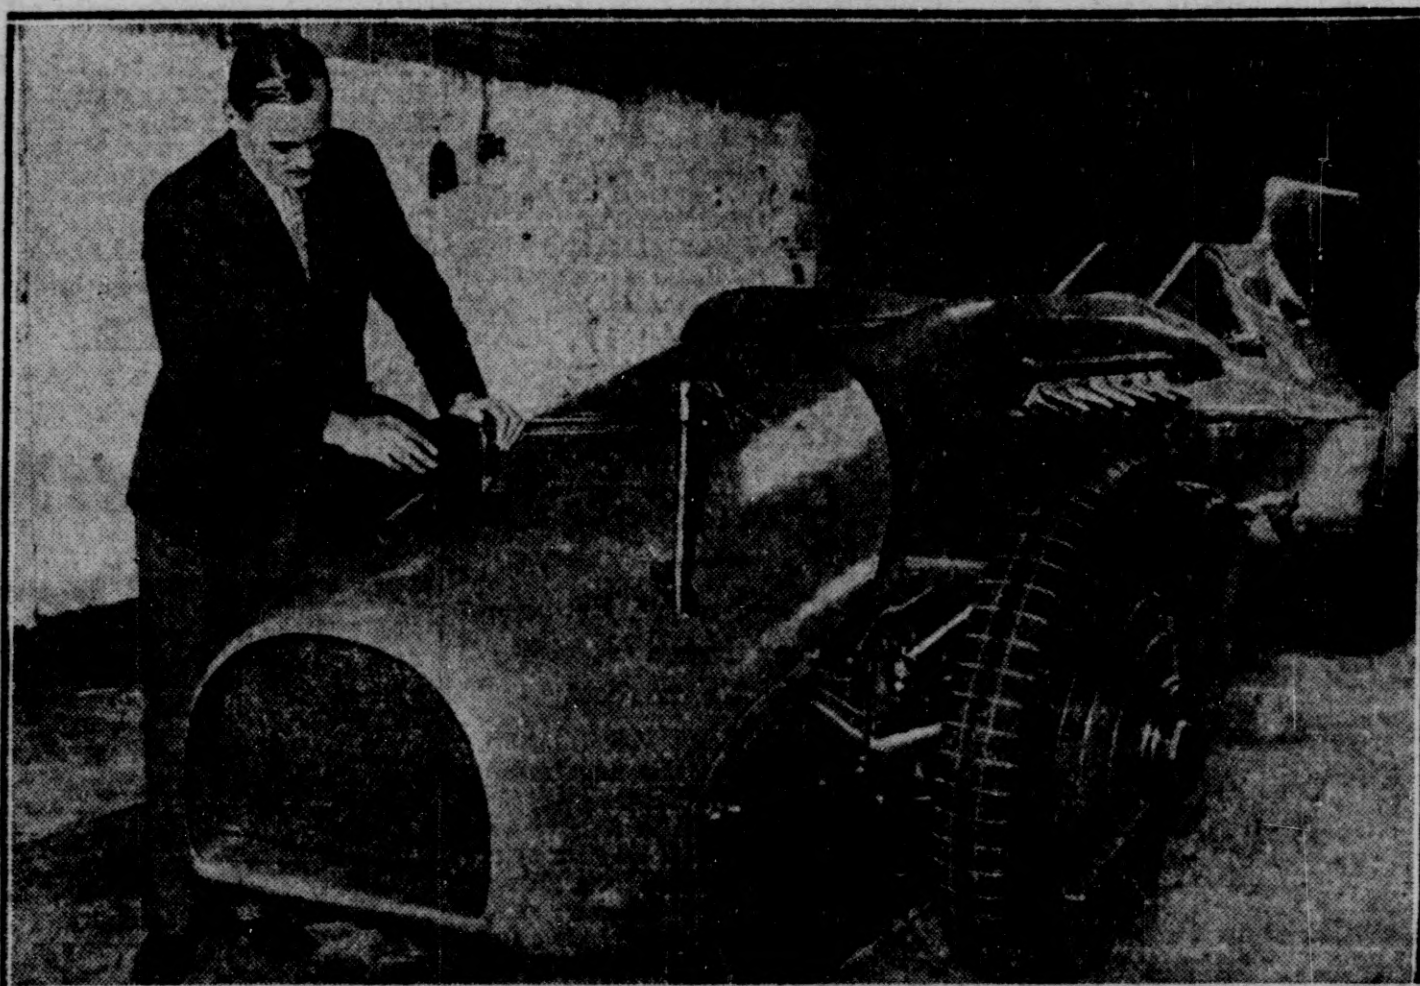

If you have ever wondered why Abraham Lincoln wore whiskers, let us present the reason. She is Mrs. Grace Billings, of Delphos, Kansas. When a little girl of 11, Mrs. Billings wrote to Lincoln, then a candidate for the Presidency, suggesting that he would "look a great deal better" if he were to grow whiskers. Lincoln not only answered the letter, but later, as President-elect, met the young girl and asked her to witness that he had taken her advice.

Lindbergh on a threat of kidnapping his second son if he refused to pay, James Bryant (left), 19, and Norman Harvey, 26, both of Roanoke, Va., are shown after their arrest. The men were captured when they attempted to cash a check for $17,000 which had been placed in a designated spot at a Roanoke suburb in accordance with instructions contained in notes to Col. Lindbergh from the would-be extortionists.

A Sister Act for Inaugural

To these three daughters of the Southland, the Misses Carol, Lynn and Jerry Yates, of Atlanta, Ga., will fall the distinction of dancing for the entertainment of a large gathering of State Governors, who will attend the inaugural reception on March 3rd at Washington. The Governors will be in the capital to attend the induction of President-elect Roosevelt, after which they will participate in a conference with the Chief Executive to discuss means of preventing duplication of Federal and State taxation.

Ready for Anything

Although he has won renown as a "tough guy" in the movies, there doesn't seem to be anything hard-boiled about Edward G. Robinson as he is pictured arriving at New York all excited over an expected visit of the stork. He came prepared, too, you'll notice—a Teddy bear if it's a boy, and a doll if the new arrival is a girl.

Envoy of Revolt?

Mario Menocal, Jr., son of the former President of Cuba, who, according to reports, has landed in Cuba, having flown by plane from Florida, where his father is in exile. It is believed in government circles that young Menocal's presence is for the purpose of preparing the way for a new revolt against President Gerardo Machado. The elder Menocal led the ill-fated 1931 uprising, which ended with his capture and exile.

Film Invader

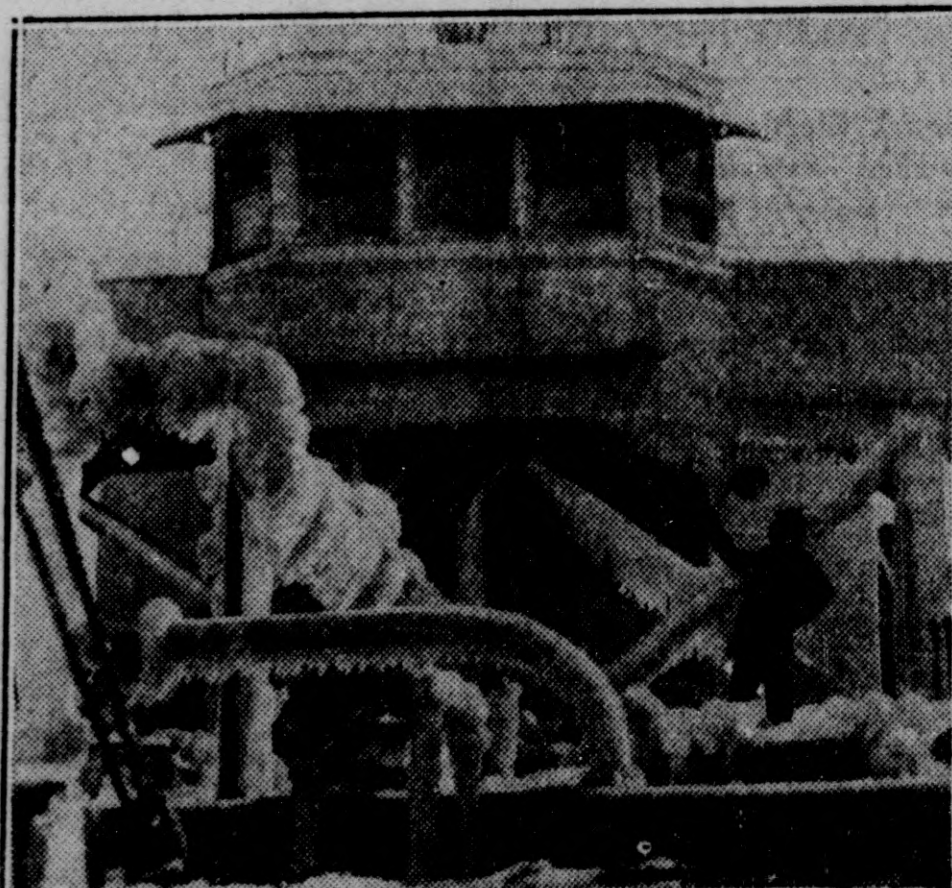

Having made a name in British films, Elizabeth Allen is now desirous of taking Hollywood by storm. The British actress is shown as she arrived at New York, en route to the film capital where she will appear in her first American production.

Hole in One?

It looks very much as if the ping-pong ball is headed straight for the mouth of Miss Gloria Shay to make a hole in one, a unique score in ping-pong. But Miss Shay just managed to intercept the sphere with her paddle in time for a fine return. She is one of the younger generation of movie actresses.

Had a Real N(ice) Trip

If you think it's cold on terra firma, take a look at this returned wanderer from Old Neptune's domain. It is the S. S. Blue Sonoco, oil tanker, pictured as it arrived in New York, covered with a heavy coating of ice on the deck and rigging. Note the pattern made by the freezing of the spray that washed over the craft.

Impressive Union Service Held For Ellwood Scouts

Big Crowd Participates In Interesting Program In Lincoln Auditorium Sunday

ADDRESS DELIVERED BY REV. A. M. STUMP

ELLWOOD CITY, Feb. 13.—Scouting was given a real stamp of approval Sunday evening, when a large crowd participated in a union service for boy scouts of this district in the Lincoln high school auditorium, and heard an address by the Rev. A. M. Stump, pastor of the St. Pauls Lutheran church of New Castle.

It was a remarkable and impressive event that Ellwood City people were privileged to see. One section of the auditorium was reserved for the boy scouts who were attired in full uniform. Scouts were present from Wampum, West Pittsburg, Wurttemberg, North Sewickley and Ellwood City.

Rev. A. M. Stevenson, pastor of the local First Presbyterian church was the presiding officer on the occasion and introduced the various speakers of the evening. The program of the evening was inaugurated with a hymn by the assembly after which Rev. Stevenson rendered the invocation and followed with the scripture reading. Then the assembly participated in another hymn after which the Rev. H. D. Maxwell, pastor of the local Emmanuel Reformed church, rendered a solo. This selection was well given and received with a hearty applause by the gathering.

Burgess Judd C. Turner, who is chairman of the Ellwood City Boy Scout district was the first speaker called upon by Rev. Stevenson. In his remarks Burgess Turner gratefully thanked all those who had aided in any way in making the Boy Scout anniversary week in Ellwood City the fine success it is turning out to be.

The principal address of the evening was given by the Rev. A. M. Stump of New Castle who highly lauded the boy scout movement in this country and in general. The speaker is a popular figure among the boys and young men of the district. He based his address on the 13th chapter of Numbers in which Moses sends out spies to watch on the Promised Land and come back with reports. Out of the 12 sent out two came back with the satisfactory report that the people there were courageous, brave and determined. These two men the speaker called good scouts who knew what they were after and proceeded to obtain. He urged his hearers to tackle the hard things of life or the giants with the same vigor and determination as the easy things.

In closing Rev. Stump told of his experience in Boy Scout work. Many years ago he organized a troop of scouts in his own church which was

Titans To Play Geneva Tuesday On Home Floor

(Special To The News.)
NEW WILMINGTON, Pa., Feb. 13.—Facing two championship teams in one week, Coach John Lawther's Westminster college basketball team has about as hard a job during the next six days as any team in the entire district.

The Titans meet the great Geneva five on the home court Tuesday evening and meet Glenville at home on Friday night. Geneva leads the Tri-State conference with a clean slate and looks to be the probable winner of the conference championship. Glenville, a yearly championship contender in West Virginia, has another strong club.

Westminster lost to Geneva at Beaver Falls on January 19, suffering the worst defeat that a Titan team had had in seven seasons. Whether or not the Titans can turn the tables on Coach Loeffler's strong Covenanters is a question, but the Beaver Falls crew is favored to repeat.

Glenville is appearing on a Titan court card for the first time, and with such stars as Hines, Vass and Burke should present as classy a team as home fans have seen all season.

Football Rules For 1933 Are Unchanged

Sideline Zones Will Be Established To Save Waste Of Down To Offensive Team

Penalty For Clipping Is Reduced From 25 To 15 Yards By Rules Makers

By DAVIS J. WALSH
International News Service
Sports Editor

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 13.—Football will be conducted this year with all plays starting at least ten yards in from the sidelines, thus eliminating the waste of a down on the innocuous looking, down-wasting out of bounds play. Otherwise, it will be essentially the same pastime with which the 1932 season was finished, clearly indicating that the football rules committee has finally mastered more self-control than the man who cuts his own hair.

Rules Untouched.
The man who cuts his own hair usually winds up with all cut and no hair. The rules committee in recent years has shown every tendency toward winding up with all rules and no game but it finished its annual period of prayer and meditation here yesterday with a commendable degree of restraint. In the main, as it did to and, this time, for the game was to broaden offensive possibilities with its 10-yard zones along either side line.

These were established so that, when the play is stopped within the prescribed areas, the ball can be moved ten yards out from the side of the field without the loss of a down. In the event that the play goes out of bounds altogether, the ball again is moved ten yards out, instead of fifteen, as heretofore.

Penalty Lightened.
The committee, after spending hours in admiration of its previous findings, then broadened the interpretation of the rule against clipping or the cutting down of a defensive player from behind. The old timer used to call this "ham-stringing" but modern hams do not seem to be so well cured. Anyhow, the committee ruled yesterday that running into the back of an opponent not carrying the ball now constitutes clipping.

It also proceeded to get a little ingenious on the penalty for this violation. On the theory that the punishment becomes stronger as the punishment becomes weaker, it decreased the penalty from 25 to 15 yards.

Cosmos Facing Tough Schedule
Three tough games await the Cosmos basketball team this week. To night the Jewish boys will play the St. Mary's Reserves in a preliminary game to the St. Mary's game at the St. Mary's floor. All of the Cosmos are asked to report at 7 o'clock tonight at the St. Mary's gym.

Tuesday night the Cosmos will play the Wesley M. E. team in the start of the second half of the New Castle Church league at the "Y" floor. Wednesday the Cosmos will go to Youngstown for a game in the Jewish league against the strong B. M. D. club. Harry Levine is the business manager of the Cosmos.

Ernie Schaaf Still In Coma

Condition Of Ernie Schaaf
Is Reported As Unchanged By Physi-
cician

ABSOLUTE REST NOW ORDERED

(International News Service)
NEW YORK, Feb. 13.—Ernie Schaaf, Boston heavyweight boxer, hovered in the shadows at Polyclinic hospital early today, still in a semi-coma from the effects of the beating he was given by Primo Carnera, Italian giant, in their fight Friday night.

Schaaf's condition was reported "unchanged" by Dr. W. V. Healey, attending physician, and Dr. S. P. Goodhart, neurologist.

Absolute Rest.
Absolute rest and quiet were ordered for the patient, only his manager, Johnny Buckley, and his mother, Mrs. Lucy Schaaf, being allowed to see him. They said he stared at them blankly without a sign of recognition.

Dr. Goodhart ridiculed implications that Schaaf might be shamming. He declared the patient showed "definite and unmistakable signs of organic injury."

Warren Y And New Castle
Y To Meet In Seven
Matches

WARREN HAS GOOD
WRESTLING TEAM

Amateur grappling will be restored to the local athletic calendar at the Y. M. C. A. Wednesday night when Warren Y meets New Castle Y.

It will be the first time since last winter that wrestling matches have been held here. The shows last winter attracted large crowds to the local institution.

Warren Y has one of the best mat teams in Ohio, according to Henry MacNichols, generalissimo of things athletic at the Y. New Castle Y also has a splendid team.

The local team is composed of Nick George, Ralph Brooks, Eugene Cartwright, Johnny George, Tony Gennock, Paul Fabian and Walter Adams.

Seven matches will be staged. Probability exists that Bob Meer-mans, in his day one of the best amateur grapplers in the game will officiate as third man.

IN SPORTS' LAND

Andrew Ingraham, Cleveland champion, was eliminated in the semi-finals of the national squash racquets tournament by Neil Sullivan of Philadelphia at Detroit, 15-6, 15-18, 15-9, 15-9.

Fidel LaBarba, former flyweight champ and featherweight title contender, will take on Mose Butch in a 10 round bout tonight at Pittsburgh.

El Gomez, southpaw pitcher, and Joe Sewell, third baseman, are the only two Yankees who have signed contracts despite the fact the Yankees are docked to go south in two more weeks.

Curtis Stevens piloted his four-man bobbed down Mt. Vanhoeverberg, Lake Placid, to a new record of 1 minute 48.35 for the mile and a half run in the National A. A. U. championships yesterday.

National football rules committee has decided to make two changes in the 1933 rules. One would eliminate sideline play through the establishment of side zones on either side of the field and the other tightened the restrictions against clipping.

Women are getting almost as independent of fashions as they are of husbands, and we doubt if they'd now stand for skirts so tight there always would be danger of seams parting company every time they tried to sit down.

Clifton Flats Boosters Make Plans For Year

Fast Baseball Team Will Be Put On Field This Summer
By Clifton Flats

Clifton Flats Boosters club will have a summer camp this year at New Wilmington Junction if necessary arrangements can be made. It was announced today. The Clifton Flats Boosters held a fine meeting last week and plans for the summer were discussed.

It is the aim of the Clifton Flats Boosters to place a fast baseball team on the field this summer. Eighteen new uniforms have been ordered. At the meeting last week two members of the club Harold McDonald and Jack Lenhart gave talks on building shelters and feeding of birds, and reported seeing many coveys of quails.

The recent membership drive of the Clifton Flats Boosters was a big success with over 100 members now enrolled. Plans were made for a banquet of the Boosters in March, the exact date has not been chosen as yet. The meeting ended with a singing festival with Clifford Hughes featuring.

Mason-Estabrook Madge Drops Murray Several Times, Wins Award Stage Slow Fight

Johnny Mason and Ted Estabrook, middleweights, stepped into a ring here January 14, 1929 and went 10 listless rounds to a draw. Only 500 fans watched the encounter as a blizzard kept fans at home. Mason, a rugged, but slow-footed plugger waged an aggressive campaign against the tall, slim, elusive Estabrook.

Estabrook owned a good right hand sock but he held it, fearing one of Mason's right hand lunges might beat him to the punch. In fact the fight was not so hot. Neither Mason or Estabrook ranked with their predecessors who fought in the bowl.

Very Good Fight
Chet Smallwood and U. S. Carpenter fought a whirling six round fight. There was action every minute.

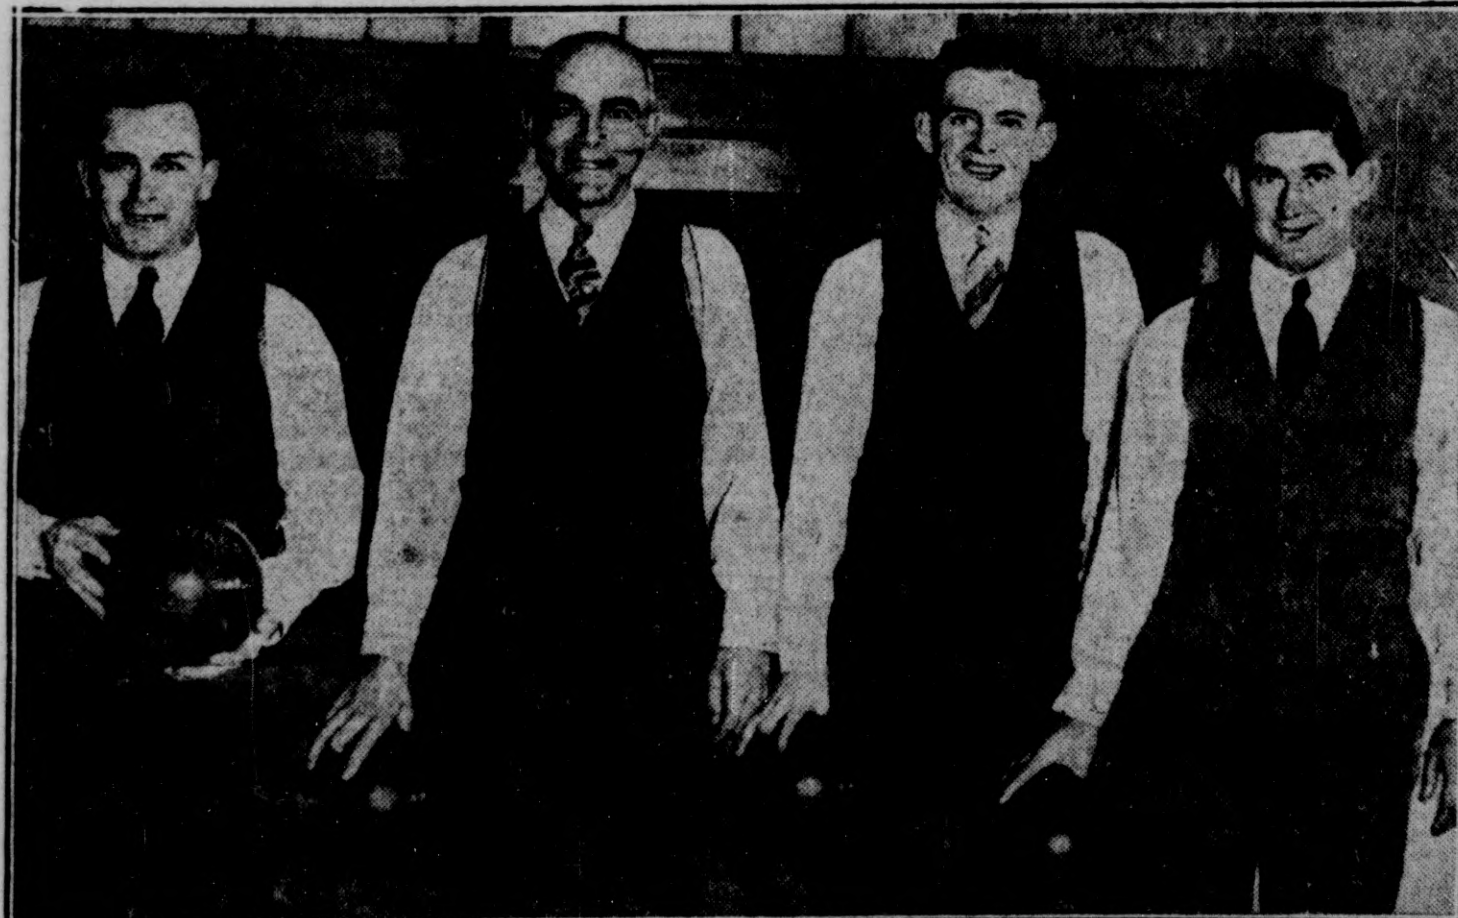

The decision was called a draw but the southpaw from Akron had a shade on Red Mason's protege. Larry Madge who later turned out to be a good main bout card opened hostilities with Jackie Murray in a six round bout. Madge won.

Madge floored Murray several times but there were spots during the fight when Murray's boxing made Larry look foolish.

Tretno Loses Battle
Willie Crowe and Tom Harb fought and wrestled for four rounds and the decision was called a draw. Lloyd Tretno and George Lawson slugged in the first and before the round was open Lloyd was floored.

He came out fighting in the second but after being knocked down twice Referee Chip stopped the fight and gave it to Lawson.

Getting in trim for the opening of the diamond season these four baseball stars work out the night in a Philadelphia bowling alley. Dykes, former A's star, was traded to the White Sox at the end of last season.

Birds Winter Well At State Game Farm

Laying Season Will Start During Early Part Of April, Warfel States

Pheasants and quail kept at the Jordan State Game Farm, are wintering well, V. T. Warfel, superintendent, stated today. There has been a smaller loss of birds this winter than any year since the game farm was established, he stated.

There will be little activity at the game farm until the laying season starts, which will be around the second week in April, but from then on, things will hum. The birds, practically of which are ring-necked pheasants, lay up until the second week in July when the laying pens are taken up.

Word has been received by Mr. Warfel, that the order for electrically operated incubators and brooding pens for the local game farm, has been approved, and it is likely that there will be no chickens used this year at the game farm.
